Pick A Loved One To Thank, And Send Me

The name of the person you want to send a gratitude postcard from Amsterdam

The address of the person where you want me to mail the postcard.

The photo you picked, and a message you want to me to write on the postcard for them.

Diwali - the festival of lights, is in mid-November. Christmas and New Year follow soon after.

It is a tradition to share gifts during both Diwali and Christmas, and this is all the more important this year given that we have all been locked up inside our homes, away from our near and dear ones.

Gratitude is a powerful catalyst for happiness. It's the spark that lights a fire of joy in your soul.

A Gesture of Gratitude

This year has been a tough one for many of us. A lot of us have been directly impacted or know people who have been impacted by Covid-19 and its economic side effects.

As a gesture of gratitude, I am sending out thank you postcards with one of my photos from beautiful Amsterdam to anyone you want me to.

Personally for me, this year has been a year of reflection. I have shared my thoughts on life at DeployYourself, and this is my way of Deploying Myself.

If anyone comes to mind after reading this, send me their details. They will have a beautiful Amsterdam postcard coming their way soon.

End 2020 on a positive note.
